

Washington, DC - Rep. Linda Sánchez announced internship opportunities in her district office in Cerritos, CA and encouraged students to apply. Deadline for the Fall Session Internship is Friday, August 14, 2009.

"I encourage students interested in the legislative process and contributing to the betterment of Southern California to apply for an internship at my office," Rep. Linda Sánchez said. "An internship in my Cerritos office can offer our young rising stars a tremendous learning and service opportunity."

Rep. Linda Sánchez is seeking college students and recent graduates to apply for internships for the Fall Session. Internships are geared to college students and recent grads with an interest in communication, law, politics, urban planning, and related fields. Internship duties will include press monitoring, event preparation, constituent services and local issue research.

Interested students should contact Rep. Sánchez' Cerritos office at 562-860-5050 to apply. Applicants can visit www.lindasanchez.house.gov for requirements, deadlines, and an online application.

Click here to view a video by Patrick Martinez , a 22-year old who recently completed a fellowship in Rep. Sánchez' Washington office. "Experience that you get here is something you can't get anywhere else," said Martinez. "If you are from Congresswoman Sánchez' district, everything that she does here is for you. Wouldn't you want to be a part of that?"